A WEEKEND WITH KEN RAMIREZ

November 18-19, 2017 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Firefighters Memorial Hall

3734 China Garden Road, Diamond Springs, CA

The Speaker - Ken Ramirez:

Ken Ramirez has been working in the training community for over 40 years. Since October of 2014 Ken has been the Executive Vice President and Chief Training Officer of Karen Pryor Clicker Training (KPCT). Ken previously served as the Executive Vice-President of animal care and animal training at Chicago's Shedd Aquarium, where he developed and supervised animal care and health programs, staff training and development, and public presentation programs for the entire animal collection of more than 32,000 animals. He worked at Shedd for nearly 26 years. Ken has also worked as a consultant providing assistance and training to approximately 140 different organizations throughout the world including Guide Dog organizations, marine mammal facilities, zoos, and aquariums.

The Topics:

Saturday, November 18th

Core Training Tools & Practices

A fresh perspective and a unique point of view on key aspects to successful training.

Handling Animal Mistakes

How a positive reinforcement trainer deals with animal errors.

Sunday, November 19th

The Human Component

Those "other skills" that frequently trip up good trainers, including people skills and organizational abilities.

Training Scent Discrimination

Using science to explore the wide array of scent discrimination training techniques.

Evolution of the Modern Trainer

Exploring the possibilities - relationship building, husbandry training, mimicry, remote training, complex chains, and much more.
